

THE HERALD.

JNO P. BARRETT, Editor.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 9, 1879.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Hon. Z. F. SMITH, of Henry county, is a candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction.

DR. H. A. M. HENDERSON, of Bourbon county, is a candidate for re-election to the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Hon. R. P. HOCKER, is a candidate for the Legislature subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election August 1879.

The Courier-Journal issued another mammoth paper last Wednesday.

There are now 1,025 prisoners confined in the State penitentiary.

NELSON county Republicans instructed for Gen. E. H. Murray for Governor.

DAVIESS county instructed for Blackburn, Cantrell, Hewitt, Hardin, Tate, Edgar and Sheldon.

HARRISON the Democratic candidate for Mayor of Chicago, was elected by nearly 5,000 plurality.

The election in Rhode Island, last week, for State officers, went Republican by about the usual majority.

The election in Little Rock, Arkansas, on the 1st inst., went Democratic; the Democrats electing every officer.

The vacancy in the office of Sheriff of Henderson county, has been filled by the appointment and qualification of Wm. Hatcher.

WM. HARRIS, one of the contestants in the late walking match at Lion Garden, Louisville, died very suddenly last Thursday.

EX CONGRESSMAN, H. Y. Riddle, of Sumner county, Tenn., committed suicide a few days since. Cause—failing health and fortune.

We understand from good authority, that John A. Bennett, Esq., has accepted the nomination of the National Greenback party for Representative.

THE FRUIT-FARM, is the name of a new quarterly paper published at Russellville by T. S. Gardener. It is devoted to fruit, flowers and the market garden.

TOMORROW is the day set apart by the Republicans for their State Convention, to nominate candidates for State offices. The Convention will be held in Louisville.

LOUISVILLE Republicans instructed largely for Gen. E. H. Murray, for Governor, and it is more than probable that he is the man Dr. Blackburn will have to cure of yellow fever.

ABOUT midnight last Sunday night week, a fire broke out in Lebanon, Ky., destroying about $50,000 worth of property, on which there was only $10,000 insurance. How sadly people neglect fire insurance.

JUDGE O. D. McMANAMA has called a special term of the Franklin Criminal Circuit Court to be held on the 28th inst., to try Thos. Buford for the murder of Judge J. M. Elliott. Why is Buford entitled to a hasty trial any more than any other brutal murderer?

OUR friend John T. Hearn has commenced the publication of an eight-column paper, at Campbellsville, Taylor county, Ky. The name given it is The Green River Press. We have received the second issue, and find it to be a new, readable sheet.

THE Louisville, Nashville and Great Southern Railroad Company, have bought a sufficiency of the first mortgage bonds to give them control of all that part of the St. Louis and South Eastern Railroad between Guthrie, Ky., and Nashville Tenn.

COL. J. STODDARD JOHNSON defends George D. Prentice from the recent slander set afloat to the effect that he at one time, sold out to the secession movement, for $25,000, in which he was thwarted by the interference of his partner. We are glad to see the reputation of this distinguished journalist thus vindicated.

ROBT W. McFARLAND and James Rudy were nominated by the Democrats of Daviess county in their recent primary election for Representatives. We have not the pleasure of an acquaintance with Mr. Rudy, but know Mr. McFarland well, and can rejoice with him at his success. He will make an excellent Representative.

THE Ohio County Herald is sweetly booming for Grant, whose "reputation" will go side by side with that of Napoleon and Alexander. The comparison is a happy one. (Courier-Journal).

A very sensible comment, but the credit should have been given to the Ohio County News. The HERALD is not, never has been, and never, under its present management, will be, for Grant.

THE Democrats of Hancock county assembled in mass convention at Hawesville, last Monday week, and instructed for Blackburn for Governor, Hardin for Attorney General, Hewitt for Auditor, Tate for Treasurer, Henderson first choice and Halls second choice for Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Marcum first choice and Boyd second choice for Register of Land Office.

THE Democracy of the First Appellate District are called to meet in convention at Owingsville April 24th, 1879, to nominate a candidate for Appellate Judge, to fill the place made vacant by the killing of Elliott. The election will be held May 12. The Governor has no power to appoint a man to fill the place. The law requires him to call a special election within six weeks after he is officially notified of the vacancy.

THE statement in last week's News to the effect that Sheriff C. W. Phillips voted a citizen of Hancock county, in our recent Democratic convention, is without foundation in truth. No citizen of Hancock county voted in the convention at all, and Sheriff Phillips is not the man to cheat, swindle or encourage illegal voting in a convention or elsewhere. He is as honorable and upright as any citizen of Ohio county. His official and private life prove that to the satisfaction of all who know him. It seems that the News is bent on vilifying the Democrats of the county. Not content with the statement in the first issue, that enough Democrats were at the convention to make a big crowd, brought there to answer indictments in the Criminal Court; in the next issue it must come out and individualize and accuse one of the best men in Ohio county of an unmanly, dishonorable act.

THE sparring at the Herald and its editor, was commenced by the News editor, at least a month before the first issue came out; and in its second issue, it made several thrusts and insinuations at the Herald and its management, but when met in the same manner, it puts on its cap of assumed righteousness and appears horrified. It has been industriously circulated, by those most interested, that all the brains, talent, and newspaper sense ever employed about the Herald office, left it March 1st 79, and yet, some how or other, the Herald has been issued regularly ever since, and has been so interesting that 157 renewals and new subscribers have been added to its list.

As we do not have to hire our work done for us, we can afford to work cheaper than those who do, thereby saving a considerable item to our customers. (News).

If you do not have to hire any one to help you, how can you singly, and alone get up more local news, set it all up yourself, and work off a larger issue than any other paper in the county, as you stated in the same issue, you were doing. These two statements conflict a little. What use has the News man of hiring anybody? Does he want help to do nothing? He hires one side of his paper edited, and printed in Cincinnati, by Aiken & Co. (he don't hire any help, oh, no). Has not one fourth the circulation of the Herald, gets but little job work to do, and hence has no need of help. He can be editor, business manager, reporter, compositor, foreman, devil, pressman, mailing clerk, job workman, and then go fishing every evening. He is right for once, when he says he does not have to hire help.

THE Ohio County News now circulates in more houses than any other paper in Ohio county, and we intend and have every reason to believe that within three months we will have a circulation in the county double that of any other paper. We do not claim seven or eight hundred more subscribers than we in reality have, nor do we claim eight or nine hundred subscribers outside of the county. We simply claim that we circulate as large if not a superior number of papers of any journal read in Ohio county. (News).

When the News containing the above, first came to light, some persons thought that the News man had set out with a firm determination to beat Gulliver, and the admirers of that eminent exaggerator, believed, from the start made, that the News would soon surpass their favorite. Others thought the editor had first gone to Williams Bro's shop and had his conscience seared, and then to Klein & Bro's and had his conscience relined with brass, in order to enable him to publish such a "buster." Still others thought that as Joe Mulhatten was in this part of the world about then, he had dropped in and tried his hand on a local for the News. When we looked at the paper and saw it was dated April 1st, then the whole thing was explained. The editor had tried his hand on an April fool yarn, and we'll bet that no man in the State has succeeded in telling, writing, or publishing such whopper as the News man.

THE Court of Appeals of Kentucky has just decided a case involving $15,000 won by Messrs. Avery, Selvage and others, of Louisville, on the election, three years ago, for Mayor. The decision was in favor of the Commonwealth, and it is now definitely settled that all money bet on elections is forfeited to the State.—Ex.

THE CONFEDERATES CAPTURE OHIO COUNTY.

A CLEAN CONFEDERATE TICKET. A Federal Soldier Denied Even a Third Instruction.

Marcum not Even a Whip-cracker.

The above are the startling head lines to the proceedings of our recent Democratic Convention, as published in the News of April 1st. Does the News man wish to be understood as willfully and purposely misrepresenting the facts, or does he wish to sail out of this trap under the plea of ignorance? In either instance he is inexcusable.

His head line says, "A Federal soldier denied even a third instruction; Marcum not even a whip-cracker;" and yet in the very proceedings, under that head line, appears the following: "Wilson was made first, Boyd second, and Marcum third choice." The facts are these, Wilson, Boyd, Sheldon and Marcum were nominated. Sheldon is the Confederate candidate, and Marcum was a captain in the Federal army, and yet Marcum beat Sheldon on every vote, and got instructions for third choice, while Sheldon was left out in the cold.

General James A. Dawson, a gallant Federal General during the war, was nominated, and, although he has a very popular Confederate opposing him, in the person of Hon. J. E. Cantrell, of Scott county; yet his nomination was made unanimous, amid great enthusiasm. There were but two candidates before the convention who were Federal soldiers, and one of them was unanimously instructed for, and the other beat his Confederate opponent, and was made third choice. With these facts before us, we naturally conclude that the News' veracity or information one, must be sadly wanting. Our readers can judge for themselves.

Criminal Court Notes.

The following orders, &c., have been taken in the Criminal Court, since our last report, viz:

Mrs. Francis Adams, charged with adultery, confessed judgment of $25 and cost.

Curran Rogers, was declared a person of unsound mind, and has been so since birth.

John Thurman, was fined $2.50 for contempt, in refusing to appear before the Grand Jury when summoned.

The suit of the Commonwealth vs. The Officers and Directors of the Ohio county Fair Company, was tried and a verdict rendered for defendant, from which verdict the Commonwealth's attorney, prayed an appeal to the Court of Appeals.

The trial of the case Commonwealth vs. Embury, for manslaughter, was concluded and verdict rendered for the defendant.

B. F. Autry, charged with assault and battery, was surrendered by his surety and remanded to jail, but was brought out again and executed a new bond and was discharged.

The case vs. Henry Thomas, grand larceny was called and Henry was not called. His bond was forfeited, alias bench warrant awarded and the case continued.

The case vs. S. C. Crawford, for breach of the peace, was dismissed on demur to the indictment.

The case vs. Elijah and Henry Crow, for burglary, was dismissed, the Grand Jury failing to indict.

The Grand Jury, reported the jail in good order except as to mattresses which they condemn and advise the purchase of new ones. They report the jail well kept and the prisoners well fed.

Margaret Shaver, was found to be an idiot, and Martelia, Shaver, was appointed as her committee.

Harvey Franklin, charged with murder, was allowed bail in the sum of $1000 which up to this writing he has not given.

Harry Jackson, fined $50 an account of which appeared last week, prayed an appeal to the court of appeals.

D. S. Stevens, sentenced one year confinement in the penitentiary, also prayed an appeal to the court of appeals.

Wm. Hewlett, colored charged with grand larceny, plead guilty and was elected for two years work in the penitentiary.

Peyton Hamilton, for carrying concealed a deadly weapon, was fined $35 and twenty days hard labor.

Thurston McHenry, col. for fornication was fined $25 in money or labor.

The same colored gentleman was also fined $50 and ten days imprisonment for illegal voting.

Frank Myrtle, a delinquent witness was fined $25.

Dan Hines, for petit larceny, was sentenced to hard labor for one month.

Sol. H. Linkens, for carrying concealed weapons, was tried and acquitted.

The following cases were continued, viz. Sally M. Southard, John T. Bell, Dr. A. V. Tatum, George Will Bennett, W. T. King, Peyton Hamilton, two cases.

The Grand Jury returned the following indictments.

Dr. Westfield, living in adultery.

Sam Larkin, assault with intent to kill.

George Simpson, carrying concealed weapons.

David Morton, keeping a tippling house.

Beaver Dam Items.

BEAVER DAM, April 7th.

Editor Herald: The weather for the past few days has been unusual for this month of the year. It is the general opinion that the heavy frosts have killed all the fruit. It seems hard that we can not have one more good fruit year.

Although there is but little prospect for tobacco to be worth much this year, farmers are most all going to attempt to raise a good crop. If they would raise less and have better tobacco they would see that they could make more money by it.

It seems that if court lasts much longer it will be useless for some farmers to attempt to raise a crop. Quite a number have been in attendance at court for two weeks—lost all their time from the farm, the busiest time of the year, and get no pay for lost time. Several have said they intended to see if the Commonwealth could not be made to pay. It looks like they should pay as well as for other parties to have to pay witness claims.

The young and old folks had a pleasant dance at the residence of Mr. Frank Kimbley, last Wednesday night, they danced all night and went home late in the morning.

Mr. Kimbley opened a butcher shop at McHenry, parties here wishing meat can have it delivered to them by notifying him.

"Mye" of Morgantown, seems to have taken exceptions to my saying that Judge Guffy was a candidate for Governor. Had I not been—as I supposed reliably informed, I should not have mentioned it. I meant not the least unkindness towards him, nor slang or unkindness towards Butler county, and I am sorry I have offended. Forgive me please, and I'll keep quiet, for I have not the least desire to meet that six footer that "Mye" says might come along. Let's have a cigar and be good friends.

Bro. Randolph delivered a very good sermon at Goshen Sunday.

Morgantown Musings.

MORGANTOWN, April 3rd.

Editor Herald: Master Milo Sloss, a young gentleman from Texas, who has been attending Mr. Finleys school for some time past, left for home on the first inst.

We presume that many of the readers of the Herald, are acquainted with our "Aunt Franky Flowers", for she is a character. She is known far and wide. She has for many years past, celebrated each annual return of her birth-day by giving a dinner of her own cooking, and inviting her old neighbors, and friends, in to share in the pleasures of retrospecting the past. Yesterday she celebrated her seventy-second, (72) birthday. We were invited, but circumstances, that we could not control prevented our attendance, but we found some consolation in being at the birth-day dinner of another party, who happens to be exactly 72 years younger than Aunt Franky.

April fools, have not been as common as on former occasions—is it because of hard times?

The members of the legal fraternity in your town, will, I have no doubt, be pleased to learn, that Mr. H. A. James—cousin Kier—has abandoned his bad habit of drinking too much whiskey. For nearly three months, he has not touched a drop, he is looking well, and we are pleased to say, that we notice business returning to him. We truly desire to see him, prove himself equal to the sore temptations, through which he has yet to pass, it is almost too much to expect, after years of worse than wasted time that he will stand firm to the last. We can but hope and pray, that he may. Surley a curse will rest on that man, who sells him the first pint of spirits after his earnest effort at reformation.

The murder of one of the highest judiciary officers of the State, by a drunkard, reckless, character, seems to me should admonish the good people of this Commonwealth, to see that the law, be more faithfully and honestly executed, and especially as touching dissipation, and dealing in intoxicants. ## Given Away

HARTFORD HERALD!

READ THIS CAREFULLY.

In order to stimulate the Farmers to greater exertions, and induce them to improve the quality of their two great staples, Corn and Tobacco, and at the same time, increase the circulation of the HERALD, we offer the following very liberal Premiums, amounting in the aggregate to

150 DOLLARS.

For the best 30 ears of Bread-corn,	$15
Second best,	10
Third best,	5
For the best 30 ears Stock-corn,	$15
Second best,	10
Third best,	5
For the best sample ten pounds shipping or stemming Leaf Tobacco,	$15
Second best,	10
Third best,	5
For the best sample ten pounds manufacturing Leaf Tobacco,	$15
Second best,	10
Third best,	5
For the best sample ten pounds cutting Leaf Tobacco,	$15
Third best,	5

The samples in each case must be of the growth of 1879, and produced by the person competing, or on his premises.

These premiums are only offered to citizens of Ohio and the adjoining Counties who are now bonafide paid-up yearly subscribers to the Hartford Herald, or become such before the 1st day of June, 1879, and continue to be such up to the time of the Fair, which will be held some time in November or December, 1879.

Competent and impartial Judges will make the awards. Remember that all it requires to be a competitor for these premiums, is to be a paid-up subscriber to the HERALD, before the 1st of June, 1879. The Herald is your local paper, and you ought to take it any how, and it is well worth the subscription price. We gave one hundred and five dollars in premiums in 1877. Subscribe now in time. Don't let this opportunity pass.

The samples that take premiums will be kept by us and placed on exhibition in the Herald Office, all the other samples will be sold at public auction, and the proceeds equally divided between the persons entering them, and placed to their credit on subscriptions to the Herald.

You here have a chance to get a paper worth $2.00 for $1.50, and a chance at $150.00 in Premiums besides. If you were to go to the Agricultural Fairs of the Country and contest for premiums aggregating $150.00, you would be charged an entrance fee of from $15.00 to $22.50, but we charge you nothing. Do not forget that the Herald is the pioneer paper of Ohio County. The only one that ever existed six months, and it is now in its fifth year, and your help to sustain it is returned by helping to bring to notice your staple products, improving their quality, and increasing their market value.

Respectfully,

BARRETT AND BRO.

We will supplement the above three first premiums on Tobacco $5, making the first premiums $20 in Gold. RAY & CO., Proprietors Falls City Tobacco Warehouse, Louisville, Ky.
